ADMISSION.

Applications for Admission to the House or Aid Outside must be made by the Applicant (in person, if possible) to the Committee on Admission, on the first Thursday of each month, at 4 o'clock P.M., at the Home on West Springfield Street, with recommendations as to character.

The certificate of the Physician of the Home, that the mental and physical condition of the applicant is such as to entitle him to be an inmate, is required before admission.

TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF

THE HOME FOR AGED MEN.

JANUARY, 1887.

IN accordance with the By-Laws, the Annual Report is respectfully submitted.

The last Annual Report noted the completed enlargement of the Home. The new dining-room, and other alterations, have been found to add greatly to the comfort of the inmates. During the past year, the building has been further improved by covering the roof with copper, and by some minor repairs which have put the house and grounds in such good condition that no large outlay will be required for years to come.

The health of the inmates has been generally good, yet there have been a number of cases of severe sickness, especially among those recently admitted; and the various infirmities which are wont to attend old age require the frequent attendance of our physician and the continual care of the nurse.

There have been nine deaths in the Home during the past year, all of them from diseases incident to old age; and one-third of the number was of inmates recently admitted, who had lived but for a few months in the Home.

Funeral services were held at the Home except as below stated: —

George Perkins died Jan. 27, 1886. He was buried with his kindred at Woodlawn Cemetery.

Benjamin Swann Munn died February 4, buried among his kindred at Newtonville.

William Robins Collier died April 2, buried in the Home lot at Mount Hope Cemetery.

William Watriss died April 10, buried in the Home lot at Mount Hope Cemetery.

David Bryant died April 12, buried in his own lot at Brookline.

Simeon Taylor died May 9. Funeral services were held in the chapel at Mount Auburn Cemetery, and he was buried there in his own lot.

James Newcombe died September 7, was buried in his own lot at Forest Hill.

Henry Brown died September 16. Funeral services at Mount Auburn chapel, and he was buried there in his own lot.

Oliver Stearns died October 4. Funeral at his daughter's house, and he was buried in the Odd Fellows' lot at Mount Hope Cemetery.

The number of inmates according to the last report was 30

The following have been admitted: —

Number of outside beneficiaries, Dec. 31, 1886,	33
Making the whole number of beneficiaries, Jan. 1, 1887, ...	65

The whole number of inmates who have lived in the Home from its establishment in 1861 to Jan. 1, 1887, is 142. The number aided outside is 149. A part of these were admitted to the house either before or after receiving outside aid.

The average age of the inmates living in the Home Jan. 1, 1887, is seventy-six years, six months.

The oldest inmate is eighty-nine years old; the youngest, sixty-one years, one month.

The average length of time they have lived in the Home is five years.

The longest residence is twenty-two years and two months; the shortest, five days.

The oldest man who ever lived in the Home was Ethan Allen De Wolf, who died at the age of ninety-nine years, eight months, after a residence in the Home of eleven years, seven months.

On a subsequent page will be found the Treasurer's report, giving an account of the receipts and expenditures, from which it appears that our expenses during the year have been $20,353.54, our income has been $15,722.41, showing an excess of expenses over the income amounting to $4,631.13.

There has been dispensed to outside beneficiaries in monthly payments $5,171, being an average of $3.03 per week to each beneficiary. The cost of supporting the beneficiaries living in the house has been $12,182.54, or an average of $8.70 per week for each inmate. With a larger number, the cost will average less. It is estimated that the increase of expense for each inmate added to the present number will be about $4.85 per week.

It will be seen that the average amount paid to an outside beneficiary is much less than the cost of supporting an inmate in the house.

In many cases, the outside help is a better charity to the recipient than residence in the Home would be, as thus the family can remain unbroken, the wife or sister or daughter can continue to minister to the comfort of the old man; and he and his be much happier than they could be, were he to come into our Home and his wife go into the Home for Aged Women, or than if they together entered a Home for Aged Couples, where would be many other aged couples, together with the widows and widowers of deceased inmates. A residence in any institution is quite different from the quiet comfort of the individual home.

There are cases where the ill health of the applicant or other cause makes him unsuitable for admission to the house, though a fit person to receive the help of this institution. Certainly, the purpose of the founders of this Home will be furthered by the continued and increased use of outside aid.

There has been paid this year, on account of the enlargement of the building in 1885, $6,852.50; for furniture for the new rooms, $1,386.42.

The following bequests have been received this year:

From the Estate of John Cowdin,	$5,000.00
" " " " Charles Faulkner,	1,000.00
" " " " John H. Eastburn,	5,000.00
" " " " Charles O. Whittemore,	1,000.00
" " " " Sarah A. Griffith,	2,000.00
" " " " Charles Nichols,	500.00
" " " " Joshua Seward, the estate in McLean Street, Boston, bequeathed to the Home by the provisions of his will.

Since the last meeting of the Corporation, the Home has suffered a heavy loss by the death of our faithful and beloved physician, Dr. Charles D. Homans, beloved and highly respected by all who have served with him these many years on the Board of Directors, yet more warmly loved by the aged men, to whom his kindly greetings and tender ministrations have been so constantly joy and comfort.

He became Director and Physician to the Home in 1864; and his unremitting labors have continued twenty years, till he entered into his rest from his home at Bar Harbor, Mount Desert, Sept. 2, 1886.

Of late years, he had been aided by his son, John Homans, 2d, as Assistant Physician.

The Home has also suffered the loss of a valued Director, Mr. John Revere, who died, after a lingering sickness, July 26, 1886.

He had served the Home as Director since 1880, being an efficient member of the Executive Committee and Chairman of the Committee on Religious Services.

At the meeting of the Directors held on October 18, the following tributes were placed on the records of the Home:—

The Directors of the Home for Aged Men, having learned of the death of their late friend and associate, Mr. John Revere, here place upon record their appreciation of his cordial interest in and service to the Home while his health permitted, during the six years he was a member of the Board. They regret that they are no longer to have his judgment and assistance in its management, and beg leave to extend to his family their sympathy in the loss which they have sustained.

"Resolved, That the Directors of the Home for Aged Men have heard with sincere regret of the death, since their last meeting, of their late friend and associate, Charles D. Homans, M.D."

They cordially recognize his faithful services in the interests of the Home for the twenty-two years during which he has been a member of the Board; while, as Physician to the House for the same period, they gratefully appreciate his kind and gratuitous professional advice to its inmates. They will miss him from their counsels, and retain a most pleasant remembrance of his work and worth to this charity, to which he so long and earnestly contributed his time and skill.

"Resolved, That the hearty sympathy of the Board be tendered to his family."

The death of Mrs. S. D. Bradford, of West Roxbury, is sincerely mourned by the old men, to whom she had been a kind friend for many years. Every year for sixteen years, Mrs. Bradford came to the Home on Christmas morning, visited every room, greeted each one of the inmates, and dispensed her gifts with her own hands, until the infirmities of age rendered her unable to go over the stairs. Then her children and grandchildren went from room to room with her gifts, while she sat in the parlor and received the greetings of the older inmates. This benevolent lady has now gone to her rest, and the grand-daughter, who was her glad almoner in this service last year, has returned to her distant home; and the old men miss the kindly gifts and the kinder greetings they have been wont to receive from this family through all these years.

Many friends have sent us gifts of clothing, books, fruits, flowers, and other comforts, for which they have our hearty thanks.

We wish to make acknowledgment to every donor; and we ask all to send their names with each gift, however small.

We render our cordial thanks to the Young Men's Christian Union for free rides to some of the inmates in the summer.

The faithful services of our Assistant Physician, Dr. John Homans, 2d, and the valuable professional services gratuitously rendered by Dr. G. H. Pierce, dentist, are thankfully recognized.

Our Superintendent, Miss Lincoln, has administered the domestic affairs of the Home with her accustomed efficiency, and with a watchful care for the health and comfort of the inmates that entitles her to their affectionate gratitude.

CORPORATION BY-LAWS.

Membership.

ARTICLE I. The Corporation shall consist of the persons named in the Act of Incorporation; of all persons who have been Directors; and of such persons as shall give to the Corporation, at any one time, one hundred dollars or upwards, or who, at any meeting of the Corporation, may be elected a member by ballot.

Officers.

ART. II. The officers of the Corporation, under the name of Directors, shall consist of a President, three Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, Clerk, and twelve other persons, all of whom shall be members of the Corporation. They shall be chosen by ballot at each Annual Meeting, and shall hold their offices for one year and until others are chosen and qualified in their stead. Two of the Directors shall be chosen at the Annual Meeting to audit the Treasurer's Account for the ensuing year.

Annual Meeting.

ART. III. The Annual Meeting of the Corporation shall be held on the second Monday of January, in every year, at such place and hour as the Directors may order; and notice of said meeting shall be given by publishing the same in one or more newspapers in the city of Boston three days at least before said meeting. The Directors may call special meetings of the Corporation whenever in their opinion it is expedient, and shall do so upon the request in writing of five members of the Corporation.

Home and Beneficiaries.

ART. IV. A suitable building or buildings, to be known as the Home for Aged Men, shall be provided for the reception of respectable aged and indigent men not otherwise provided for, into which may be admitted such persons, coming under the above designation, as the Directors shall from time to time determine, upon such terms and conditions as they may deem proper and expedient. The Directors may, if they deem it expedient, aid beneficiaries at their own homes.

Directors' Meetings.

Art. V. Meetings of the Directors shall be held on the third Monday of January, April, July, and October in each year, at such place and hour as they shall determine; and Special Meetings shall be called by the Clerk at any time upon the written order of the President or upon that of any three Directors.

Seven members present at any meeting shall constitute a quorum. The Directors are authorized to fill for the remainder of the current year vacancies in any of the offices provided for in Article II.

Presiding Officer.

Art. VI. The President shall preside at the meetings, when present. In his absence, a Vice-President or senior member of the Board present shall preside.

Treasurer.

Art. VII. The Treasurer shall have the custody of all moneys, bonds, deeds, and securities belonging to the Corporation, which he shall keep, manage, and invest, under the direction and control of the Board of Directors or their committee appointed for the purpose. He shall pay no money but upon the order of the Board of Directors or of their committee duly authorized. At the Annual Meeting, he shall render a statement in detail of his receipts and disbursements made up to the thirty-first day of December, inclusive in each year, with a statement of the property belonging to the Corporation, and shall at any time give such information in regard to the property in his possession as may be requested by the Directors.

He shall record in a book kept for the purpose abstracts of the wills of persons deceased, so far as they relate to bequests to the "Home for Aged Men."

Clerk.

ART. VIII. The Clerk shall notify and attend all meetings of the Corporation, of the Directors and Executive Committee, and shall keep a record of the doings of each, with the names of the members present, and shall notify the members of the Visiting Committee of their term of service.

Directors.

ART. IX. The Directors shall have the entire charge of the Home and of the general business and property of the Corporation, and of the admission and discharge of inmates. They may perform the duties required of them by Committees chosen from their own number, and during the intervals of their meetings may act by an Executive Committee. They shall have the power to enter into and bind the Corporation by such contracts as they may deem advantageous. They may appoint all proper and necessary officers, assistants, and servants for the management and care of the Home and beneficiaries, with such salaries and allowances as they may from time to time fix and determine, and may remove the same at pleasure; and make all such rules and regulations for their own government, and for the government of such officers, assistants, and servants, for the admission, confirmation, discharge, removal, control, and care of inmates, and the well ordering and conducting of the respective departments of the Home as to them may seem proper and expedient: provided, however, that the said rules and regulations may be altered or amended by the Corporation at their Annual Meeting or at any legal meeting especially called for the purpose. They shall manage, invest, and dispose of the property of the Corporation, and shall receive and collect donations and bequests; but no sale or transfer of any of the property, and no payment of money from the treasury, shall be made without their order or that of a committee duly authorized by them.

They shall cause a complete record of all their doings to be kept, which shall be laid before the Corporation whenever required; and, at every Annual Meeting, they shall make a written report on the Treasurer's Accounts and on the general state of the Home, comprising a statement of the number of inmates and beneficiaries at the commencement of the year, number admitted, died, left, or discharged, and the number remaining, with an account of the receipts and expenditures of each department; and for this purpose they shall, at a previous meeting, appoint a Committee of their own number.

Donations and Bequests.

ART. X. All sums received by the Corporation as donations or bequests, unless the donor or testator shall otherwise prescribe, and all collections, including annual and other subscriptions, may be applied to the current expenses of the Corporation or to increase the permanent fund, at the discretion of the Directors.

Amendments.

ART. XI. Any amendment of these By-Laws, proposed at a meeting of the Corporation, may be adopted at a subsequent meeting, and not otherwise.

DIRECTORS' BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I. Meetings of the Directors shall be held on the third Monday of January, April, July, and October in each year, at such hour as they may determine. Seven members shall constitute a quorum for business.

Order of Business.

ART. II. The first business in order shall be the reading of the records of the previous meeting. Reports of Committees shall be next in order, and thereafter any other business may come before the Board.

Standing Committees, Superintendent, and Physician.

ART. III. At the first meeting after the annual meeting, the following-named Standing Committees shall be elected: namely, an Executive Committee, a Committee on Admission, on Finance, on Religious Services, and such other Committees as the Board may deem expedient. A Superintendent and a Physician shall be elected at this meeting.

Chairman and Reports of Committees.

ART. IV. The first-named member on a Committee shall be Chairman, and reports of Committees shall be submitted in writing.

Executive Committee.

ART. V. The Executive Committee shall have the general charge of the affairs of the Home, except as otherwise provided herein, during the interval between the regular quarterly meetings of the Directors, and act in their behalf. They shall meet at the Home on the first Monday of every month, and some one of them shall visit it at least once a week. They shall keep a record of their proceedings, which shall be laid before the Directors at their quarterly meetings. They shall make or authorize all purchases for the Home, and shall examine and approve all bills before payment by the Treasurer.

Committee on Admission.

ART. VI. The Committee on Admission shall visit or confer with each applicant for admission or relief, inquire into his circumstances and character, and make a full report of all the material facts in each case. The Directors alone shall decide upon the admission or relief of applicants. The Committee shall keep a register, in which shall be entered the names of applicants, their respective ages, place of birth and residence, by whom recommended, date of application, the decision of the Directors thereon, and such other facts as they may deem important; and they shall assign to inmates their rooms.

Finance Committee.

ART. VII. The Finance Committee shall have the general charge and direction of all matters connected with the money, mortgages, and other securities belonging to the Home, and shall direct the Treasurer in the disposition of the same.

Committee on Religious Services.

ART. VIII. The Committee on Religious Services shall, as often as practicable, supply the Home with preaching on Sundays. They shall make such regulations in regard to the same and to other religious services as they may deem expedient.

Superintendent.

ART. IX. The Superintendent, under the direction of the Executive Committee, shall have charge of the house, and shall strictly obey and enforce the rules and regulations of the Directors. Order, neatness, and good conduct must prevail throughout the Home.

The Superintendent shall have the care of, and be responsible for, all supplies furnished for the use of the family; shall be present at meals, see that they are properly served, that suitable food is provided for the sick, proper order is observed at table, a blessing asked before each meal; and by firmness, kindness, attention, and judicious treatment endeavor to secure the comfort and happiness of the inmates. At each monthly meeting of the Executive Committee, the Superintendent shall present, in writing, a statement of the supplies required, with a report of the condition of the Home and its inmates, and such other matters as may be important. Improper conduct of any of the inmates shall be reported to the Executive Committee.

The Superintendent shall keep a book in which shall be recorded a list of the furniture, linen, and other articles belonging to the Home, which list shall be corrected annually in the month of December, and laid before the Corporation at its annual meeting in January.

Presents, other than money, shall be entered, with the name of the donor, in a book kept for the purpose by the Superintendent.

Beneficiaries.

Art. X. Sect 1. Every applicant must furnish satisfactory testimonials of the respectability of his character, and freely communicate all facts necessary to a proper understanding of his case.

Sect. 2. In no case whatever shall any person be placed on the list of beneficiaries but those who are natives of the United States of America, are at least fifty-five years of age, and have resided in Boston during the ten years next preceding their application for relief, unless by the unanimous vote of all the Directors present, the number present being not less than twelve.

Sect. 3. Each beneficiary when first admitted shall be upon probation for the term of six months. After the expiration of said term, the Directors shall, as they deem expedient, dismiss or confirm the applicant as a permanent inmate of the Home.

Sect. 4. Persons not confirmed as permanent inmates shall be refunded the balance of the admission fee paid by them, after deducting therefrom three dollars per week for the time they have remained in the Home, as a compensation for their board.

Sect. 5. Every inmate must obey the rules and regulations of the Corporation and of the Directors.

Sect. 6. The Directors in all cases reserve the right to dismiss and expel from the Home any inmate who shall violate any of the rules, or whom, from any other cause, they may deem not to be a proper object of this charity; admissions to the Home not being permanent, but only during the good behavior of the inmates and the pleasure of the Directors. Notice of the intention to dismiss and expel an inmate shall be given in the call for the meeting when such action is to be taken.

SECT. 7. Beneficiaries aided out of the Home may be stricken from the list, or the amount of relief modified at any time, by vote of the Directors.

SECT. 8. The Directors shall from time to time fix the terms of admission to the Home. Unless otherwise ordered, one hundred and fifty dollars shall be the fee for admission in each case.

SECT. 9. Furniture and other articles brought into the Home, by or for permanent inmates, must remain for the benefit and use of the Home. Beneficiaries who have property must secure the same to the Corporation before admission; and, in case of money or other property coming into their possession after their admission, by inheritance, bequest, or otherwise, if they continue as an inmate of the Home, they must make the same over to the Corporation, upon the demand of the Directors.

SECT. 10. Any inmate desirous, for any cause, to leave the Home, is at liberty to depart. Should he leave within six months from his admission as a permanent inmate, the entrance-money which has been paid on his account shall be returned, after deducting a reasonable amount for his support while in the Home. Should he have made over any property to the Corporation, the said property or the amount of the proceeds of the same shall be paid to him, after deducting his board for the time he has been in the Home; but, after once leaving, he cannot return as an inmate, unless by vote of the Directors.

Amendments.

ART. XI. These By-Laws may be altered or amended at any legal meeting of the Directors, provided that, in the notices calling said meeting, it shall have been stated that an alteration or amendment is to be made.

HOUSE RULES.

1. The entire care of the house shall be in charge of the Superintendent, under the direction of the Executive Committee.

2. The Superintendent shall strictly obey and enforce the rules, and by firmness, kindness, attention, and judicious treatment, endeavor to secure the comfort and happiness of the inmates; who, on their part, shall pay strict obedience to all rules and regulations, and treat the Directors, Visitors, Superintendents, Assistants, and each other with becoming respect, and by gentlemanly conduct at all times, and by acts of courtesy and forbearance, endeavor to make a happy household.

3. Every inmate, except in case of sickness, is expected to attend all religious services.

4. Breakfast at seven o'clock, from April 1 to October 1, and at eight o'clock from October 1 to April 1; dinner at one o'clock; tea at six o'clock from April 1 to October 1, and at five o'clock from October 1 to April 1.

5. A general table will be provided for the inmates, at which all who are able must attend punctually, and endeavor, by order and genial intercourse, to make such occasions seasons of agreeable recreation. No article of food or drink, except as provided in the diet list or ordered by the Physician, shall be used in the house, unless by permission of the Superintendent.

6. The Superintendent will preside at the table, and ask a blessing before each meal.

7. Those confined to their rooms by illness will be furnished with sick-diet, under the direction of the Physician and the Superintendent.

8. Washing and ironing shall, if practicable, be done on Mondays and Tuesdays.

9. All that is necessary for the comfortable support of the inmates will be provided by the Corporation. No inmate therefore will be permitted to solicit assistance for himself or others, unless by special permit of the Executive Committee.

10. Every inmate must make himself useful in any way that his services may be available for the benefit of the Home, at the discretion of the Superintendent.

11. No intoxicating drinks or strong stimulant shall be used in the house, except by order of the Physician, when it shall be administered by the Superintendent or Nurse.

12. No tobacco smoking will be allowed in the house.

13. Inmates will not be allowed to enter the kitchen, store-room, or other offices of the house, unless by consent of the Superintendent; and they are also expected to pay a due regard to the privacy of each other's rooms.

14. No inmate will be permitted to interfere with or find fault with the assistants or servants. If they have cause for complaint, they must, in the first place, state their grievance to the Superintendent; if not remedied, they can appeal to either of the Directors.

15. The assistants and servants will at all times be required to treat the inmates with becoming kindness, forbearance, and respect; to be courteous to all visitors, and strictly comply with the rules of the house.

16. No inmate or person employed in the house will be permitted to be out after ten o'clock P.M., at which hour the doors will be closed for the night.

17. The Superintendent must see that all unnecessary fires and lights are extinguished by ten o'clock at night.

18. Inmates should make it known to the Superintendent when they are going out.

19. Any one desiring to visit his friends must obtain leave of the Superintendent, whom he shall inform of the place where he intends to stay and the probable length of his visit. The time of making visits, as well as their frequency, is left to the discretion of the Superintendent.

20. The friends of inmates and the public generally may visit the house only on Wednesdays and Saturdays, from nine to eleven o'clock A.M. and from three to five P.M., unless by a permit from one of the Directors.

21. To preserve order and harmony in the family, entire obedience must be paid to all the rules and regulations adopted for the government of the Home. It shall be the duty of the Superintendent to admonish the inmates for any violation of the same; and, if repeated, the Superintendent shall prefer a complaint to the Executive Committee, to take such action as they may deem expedient. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be necessary to the validity of a vote of removal by the Directors.

The certificate of the Physician of the Home, that the mental and physical condition of the applicant is such as to entitle him to be an inmate, is required before admission.

22. Inmates earning money must pay the same to the Executive Committee at their next succeeding meeting, to be expended for the special use and benefit of the party earning the same, at the discretion of the Committee.

23. These rules may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Directors.

FORM OF BOND.

I, the undersigned, in consideration of having become a beneficiary or inmate of the Home for Aged Men, do hereby agree to obey the rules and regulations adopted by the Directors, and my right to remain in the Home shall depend upon such obedience; and I do hereby sell and make over to the Corporation all such personal property as I have brought to the Home, and agree that all property which I shall bring to the Home for my use shall then become the property of said Corporation. And, for the consideration aforesaid, I do hereby sell and convey to said Corporation any property, both real and personal, which I now have, and hereby agree to sell and convey to said Corporation all property, both real and personal, which I now or may hereafter own, and to execute all papers and to do all things necessary to transfer and convey said property to said Corporation, in trust, nevertheless, for the following purposes: to sell, convey, and dispose of the same or such parts thereof as may be necessary, and apply sufficient of the proceeds of the sale thereof to pay said Corporation all that it may have paid or spent on my account, and reimburse itself for the board and supplies furnished to me, and to invest the balance of said proceeds, and hold the same and interest thereon as security for what sums may be spent or supplies furnished to me or on my account, and upon my death to pay and convey the balance of said trust funds, over and above what is sufficient to reimburse said Corporation for all that has been paid for me and on my account, to such parties as I shall by will direct or to my legal representatives.

WITNESS my hand and seal, this the day of in the year one thousand eight hundred and Witness.
